

Instructions for Workshop Leader

Use these slides (in order) with the sections of your session outline.

Welcome and Overview (Slides 2-4)

Activity (Slides 5-7)

Present (Slides 8-13)

Discuss (Slide 14)

Review and Evaluate (Slides 15-20)

Close (Slide 21)

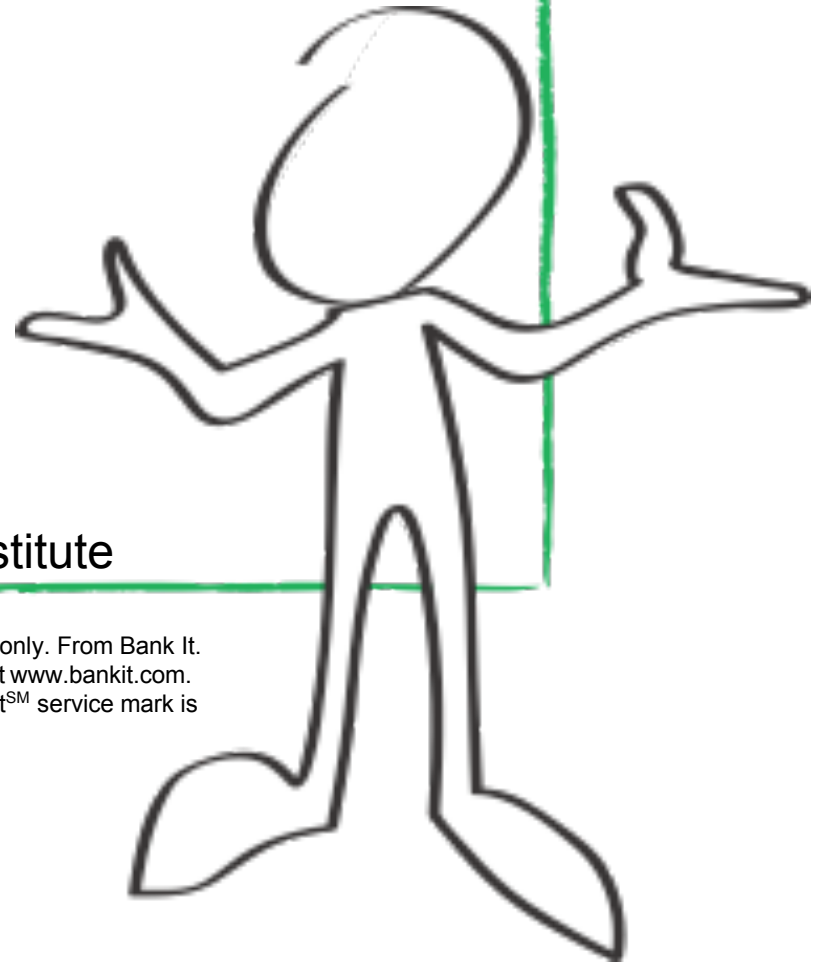

Talk Well

Welcome to Bank It

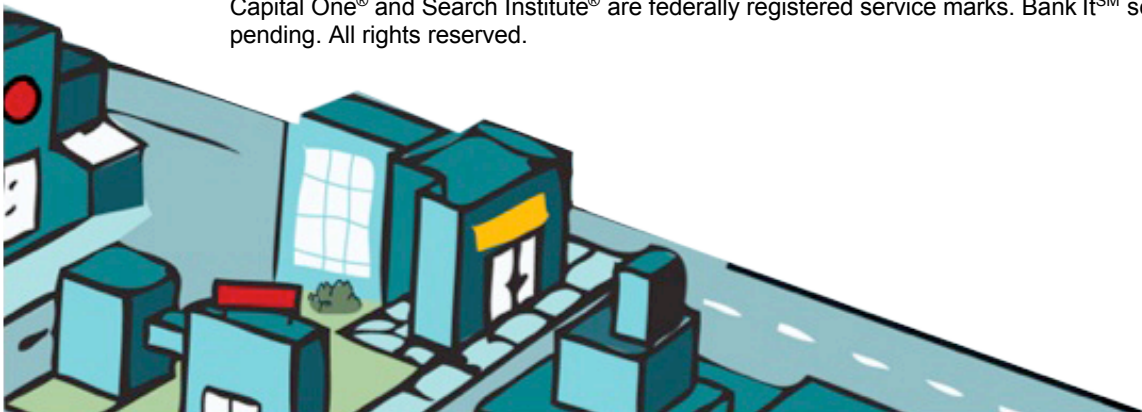

Talking to Your Parents about Protecting Yourself

3-TA-T

Sponsored by Capital One and Search Institute

Permission to photocopy this handout granted for individual and educational use only. From Bank It. Copyright © 2010 by Capital One and Search Institute. For more information, visit www.bankit.com. Capital One® and Search Institute® are federally registered service marks. Bank ItSM service mark is pending. All rights reserved.

Welcome and Overview

What is Bank It?

Bank It delivers real-world topics and tools to help you:

- Understand,
- Talk about, and
- Manage your money.

From Capital One and Search Institute

3-TA-T

Welcome and Overview

Three goals for today:

1. Identify at least one example of personal information you should not share with others.
2. Name at least one consequence of sharing personal information.
3. Identify at least one way to protect your personal identity.

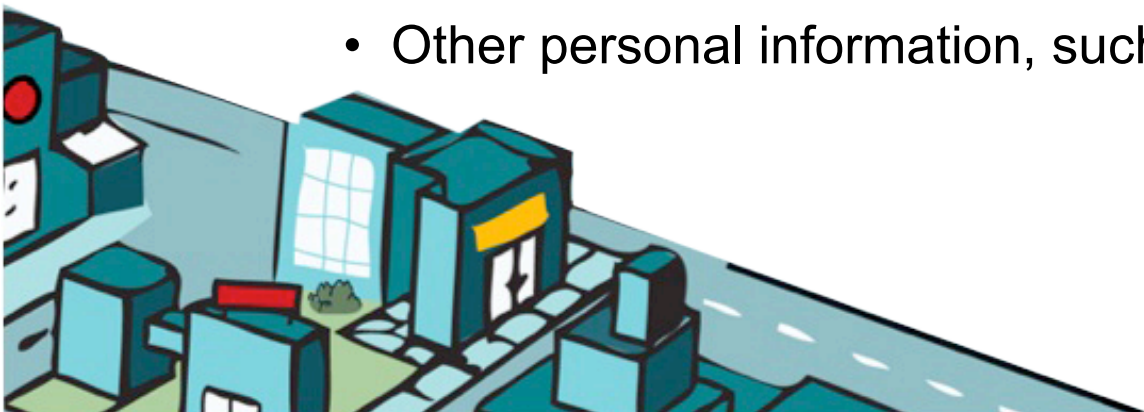

3-TA-T

Activity

What personal information do you need to protect?

- Birth date
- Address
- Social security number
- Driver's license
- Passwords
- Other personal information, such as a birth certificate

Activity

It's Okay or It's Not Okay

3-TA-T

Activity

What are some consequences of sharing your personal information with a scam artist?

3-TA-T

Present

How can we protect ourselves?

3-TA-T

Present

How can we protect ourselves (and our belongings)?

- At school
- At home
- When we're out and about

3-TA-T

Present

Truth in Lending Act

- Created by the federal government
- Protects consumers with credit transactions

3-TA-T

Present

Truth in Savings Act

- Created by the federal government
- Protects consumers with opening a savings account

3-TA-T

Present

FDIC

- Stands for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
- Part of the federal government
- Protects money deposited in FDIC-insured institutions

3-TA-T

Present

Two key messages:

1. You can protect yourself.
2. The government is also protecting you.

3-TA-T

Discuss

Turn to talk to someone near you.

1. Say your first name.
2. Talk about an incident when you've heard of someone having something stolen. What happened?

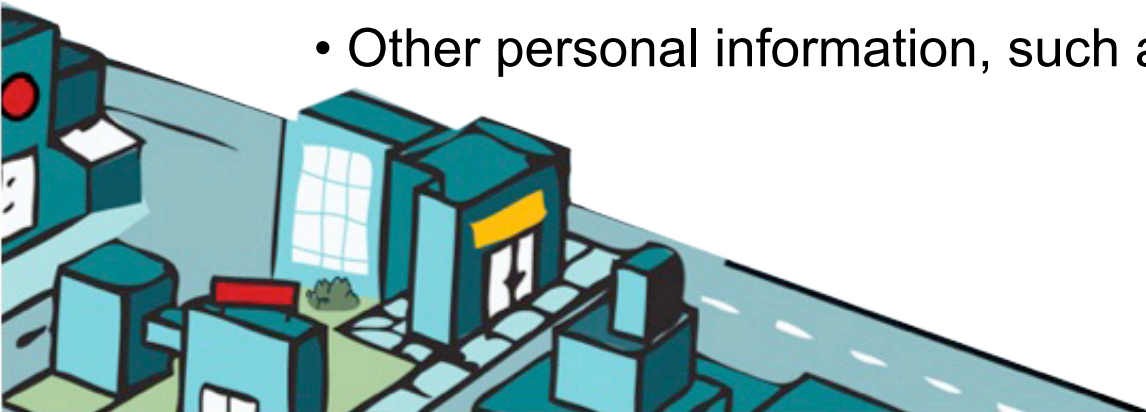

3-TA-T

Review and Evaluate

What are examples of personal information not to share with others?

- Date of birth
- Address
- Social security number
- Driver's license
- Passwords
- Other personal information, such as a birth certificate

Review and Evaluate

What are possible consequences of sharing your personal information?

- Your identity could be stolen
- You could lose money.
- You could be charged with a crime if someone stole your identity and then committed a crime.

Review and Evaluate

What are ways to protect our stuff and our identity?

- Find a safe place to keep our money.
- Find a safe place to keep our valuables, such as cell phones and MP3 players.
- Find a safe way to store our identity information, such as our date of birth, our address, a driver's license, a social security number, or a password.

3-TA-T

Review and Evaluate

What is the Truth in Lending Act?

- Created by the federal government
- Protects consumers with credit transactions

3-TA-T

Review and Evaluate

What is the Truth in Savings Act?

- Created by the federal government
- Protects consumers with opening a savings account

3-TA-T

Review and Evaluate

What is the FDIC?

- Stands for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
- Part of the federal government
- Protects money deposited in FDIC-insured institutions

Close

I can protect my identity.

I can protect my valuable belongings.

Together, our family can help protect each other.

3-TA-T

